POINT MÉTHODE Double and triple texts

Le fonctionnement est semblable à celui utilisé pour les textes simples : lisez tous les textes rapidement et superficiellement pour recueillir suffisamment d'informations à leur sujet. Cette première lecture est une sorte de « mission de reconnaissance » ! Trouvez le lien entre les textes. Lisez ensuite les questions et les choix de réponse. Revenez enfin aux textes pour trouver les bonnes réponses.

Posez-vous les mêmes questions que pour les textes simples : Who, What, When, Why, Where, et So What?

Bon nombre des textes de la deuxième partie de la Part 7 comportent des tableaux ou des graphiques. Lisez les titres et les légendes : ils donnent presque toujours des indices sur les questions. Les notes doivent aussi être lues attentivement.

Regardez bien les graphiques et veillez à ces éléments :

- Titres et rubriques
- Objectif des informations
- Noms des personnes (pour chercher la cible visée)
- Détails particuliers ou informations liés aux titres
- Sujet des graphiques et des textes vus ensemble

Exercice 6 Triple texts

Lisez les trois documents puis répondez aux questions.

Subject : Reservation in July

Date : March 4

Hello,

A friend of mine and frequent customers of yours, the Snyder family, has raved about your cabins next to Paradise Lake and I would love to book one for my family for five days at the end of July, the 26th to 31st. It'll be my wife, me and our two sons. We'd also like to bring our Golden Retriever; would that be OK?

This trip is also a gift from my mother-in-law and she would like to pay for our stay. Could she pay by check?

Many thanks

Joe Cox

Dear Mr. Cox

Thank you for your inquiry and praise about our cabins. The period that you have requested is a very busy time for us as we only have one cabin available, the Manzanita. You will be able to bring your dog but will have to pay an additional $20 per night and also leave a $250 cleaning deposit that will be refunded to you after inspecting the room. Sadly, we no longer accept checks but do take cash, credit card or even by smartphone on arrival. I've put a hold on the cabin until noon tomorrow, so please let me know as soon as possible if you'll take it.

Kind regards,

Lisa Schweddy
